Subject: Re: Alice - James Arbuthnot meeting

Thanks Susan. As we don't have cvs for Bell and Bligh could you say who they are/why suggested?

Re the update - could you add a para re costs and timing on SS? I did ask for the last week update, updated - not sure why I have just been sent an extract? My ambition is to reassure Alice that we are on the detail.

A good meeting this pm. Thank you.

Further to our conversation this afternoon.

There are two issues where we need to obtain JA's view on our approach.

Firstly, JA committed to providing an update for MPs in the autumn but we have not ascertained what he has in mind, although I think that there was a brief conversation which suggested that no written report would be required but that a meeting would be held with JA; MPs; SS; JFSA and the Post Office. Our strong preference would be to use that meeting to discuss the mediation scheme and to provide an update eg no of cases registered, where they are in the process etc. The mediation scheme will not close now until 18th November so we won't have final numbers but we can certainly give an update on progress. It is also our current intention/ aspiration to have resolved some of the cases of the most vociferous MPs.

An understanding of his thoughts would be useful at this stage, I had raised this with Janet and she was proposing to talk to him last week and update me, I have not had an update but that could be because of the political situation rather than anything else. I will drop her an email asking for an update before the meeting.

Secondly we are going ahead on the basis that he doesn't want to be involved in the process either as a conduit for MP's cases (where they are submitted to him/Janet they are being sent the mediation packs) or as part of the Independent Working Group. We need to acknowledge that he recommended Sir Stephen Sedgley as a candidate for the independent chair.

Obviously general feedback would be useful as to how he thinks that this is going.

Paula as requested I have included a front page on the brief for the Independent Chair and a ref to some CVs to follow.

Extract from update on 30th AugustMediation Process Launch – 27th August

- Appointed CEDR (Centre of Effective Dispute Resolution) as Mediators
- Panel of independent advisors nearly finalised.
 - Panel will include over approx. 20 professionals made up of Accountants and Legal firms
 - We are currently negotiating with a final couple of legal firms to restrict their costs and this will be decided - this will decide whether they make the panel or not.
- We are running a briefing/training day for the panel of independent advisors and mediators 5th Sept in Birmingham. This will help make sure they are well informed before they are engaged for SPMR cases. I will chair the day, the JFSA are going to introduce the programme, Andy Parsons will cover the mediation process, and introduction to the Post Office and the horizon system will be presented by Angela and SS are preparing a case study.
- I have agreed with SS to cap their costs over the coming months.

Working PartyIndependent Chair

- We currently have 5 potential candidates for the independent chair:
- Sir Antony Hooper
- Sir Alan Ward
- Sir Stephen Sedley
- Catherine Bell
- Stephen Bligh
- I will send the JD and briefing pack separately

Legal and Adjudication of future case

- Meeting was held with our external law firm who have been completing the criminal case review
- The issues that we want Brian Altman QC to advise on were agreed, final sign off of review process; options re appointment of independent expert witness (paper to follow); advice on prosecutions going forward.
- Following this discussion TOR for his review to be finalised.

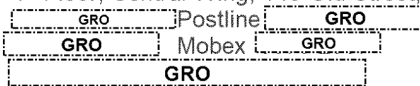

Shout if you need anything else

Susan
