

Learning Session

Introduction to Investigations Workshop Tutor Notes
Ref	IIW/26
Content/Activity	Searching of clothing, premises and cars, practical exercises
Objectives/Learning Aims	Delegates to understand how to carry out searches in accordance with legislation and business policy
Time allocated	xx minutes
On arrival at Sulhamstead the Tutors will have from 0800 (earliest entry time) until the 0900 meeting time with the delegates to load the two search houses with "stolen" property. The sequence of the day is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Theory session</li><li>• Clothing searching practical exercise</li><li>• House searching practical exercise</li><li>• Car searching practical exercise</li></ul> THEORY SESSION While one Tutor is going through the theory session the other is to "load" himself ready to be searched in the clothing search practical exercise that follows immediately afterwards. Stress to the delegates that we are going to go through the theory session very quickly as the points are covered in the module and handout – this is very much a refresher session only. Tutors to be aware that this theory session is on general matters – at the start of each session during the day there is time allocated to discuss the practicalities of how each type of search is carried out. To consider the following issues in general questioning and discussion (all areas will have been covered in the search e-learning module, the search handout and general questioning earlier in the course):

