Andy – further to our call this afternoon I have made the following further changes:

- Updated the “top ten” examples
- Added an Appendix A re banking. This is partly as additional detail for this paper and partly to be cross referenced as a response to misunderstandings in Second Sight’s Second Report
- Deleted repetitions
- Moved the second example (from the old draft) into the “top ten”. I.e. moving the extra explanation on ATM retracts

I am afraid my formatting has gone awry in some of it. I can’t work out how to sort out indents.

Thanks, Rod

Andy – please find attached my latest draft. Towards the end of it I have put some hashtags and explained that I am continuing to rationalise the duplicate explanations of personal banking and to align with notes on banking in the paper of responses to Second Sights Second Report.

However, I hope that the narrative up to that point gives you a good steer on where I am going in order that we can discuss next steps on that.

There are (as marked) a few enquiries I am still making too. But I hope that this now gives a firmer basis for review and discussion.

Thanks, Rod

Rod, Angela

Attached is our first stab at trying to explain the operation of the Suspense Account.

All comments welcomed.
Kind regards
