Audit shortage at Ibstock Post Office on 20th August 2008

I write regarding your interview on the above date, in connection with the audit shortage at Ibstock Post Office©. We are now in receipt of all your requested bank statements for which you gave authority to release. With regard to the date which you alleged to have started using Post Office© money, I would like to put further questions to you, regarding the events prior to that date.

Therefore, I would like to invite you to voluntarily attend an interview, so that you have the opportunity to answer the questions put to you. As before, the interview will be conducted under caution and in accordance with The Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984. During the interview you will be offered the opportunity to have legal representation and it may therefore be in your interest, if you so wish, to seek legal advice prior to attending the interview.

I have made provisional arrangements for this interview to take place at Coalville Police Station and ask you to please contact me, as soon as possible, so that a mutually agreeable date can be arranged for this interview to take place.
