Ian,

I sent an update late yesterday pm to Gary so he may have sent it on to you by now, but here it is anyway.

At this point I'm concentrating on the Business issues, but I believe a fix is being prepared. Once it is prepared it will be tested and distributed in the normal way. I'm not normally in the loop for such things, but presumably details of this will be communicated to POL in the normal way (whatever that is).

Regards

Gareth

Gareth

many thanks for the update

Please could you circulate a revised explanation that shows the correct figures etc

I'd also be interested in the "fix" to the code and test plans etc, so please could you keep me in the loop

regards

Ian

Misbalance

Gary,

I've tried to capture the problem and the way to carry out the short term fix in the attached.

<<RemMisbalance.doc>>

Please can you distribute to other relevant POL people.

Thanks
