David,

Although we have missed the target exit date (31st October), which is disappointing, the situation is:

- Stephen has been kept fully updated.
- Counting only those that we have agreed to count, the estate is at 98% functioning
- We have on a daily basis jointly agreed to delay red alert testing
- We did enter red alert testing with RMG approval today
- RMG & Fujitsu are working very well together and jointly tying to "get the win"

Sorry to burden you with this!
