Ged,
following our discussion thanks for this.

Andrew/Robert, given that we will now be seeking recovery via the spmr can you ensure you liaise with the Contracts team as there may be obvious impact/ repercussions.
Cheers,

Andy

Jenny

I have reviewed this case and find that we have dropped the theft charge and successfully prosecuted the 3 counts of false accounting. As this defendant is a sub-postmasters assistant (office manager) and his contract is with the sub-postmaster and not us I find it difficult to quantify the benefit figure in this case. I believe that we should withdraw from the confiscation process and that recovery for POLTD should be through the sub-postmasters contract and for the sub-postmaster through the civil courts for compensation based on any contract that they believe is enforceable.

Please withdraw from the confiscation process.

Regards

Ged
