Morning Janet,

Paula has no objection to Alan Bates attending the meeting. Do you have a list of attendees you could send me at this stage? Also, can I just confirm if the meeting will be in the House of Commons or Portcullis House?

Many thanks and look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Kind regards,

Avene

Hi Avene

This is really good news. Thank you and please thank Paula for making this date.

James wondered whether she would have any objection if Alan Bates attended. Might you pass this to her and let me know? James was keen that she hears what he has to say, as well as that of the other MPs.

I will forward a proposed agenda in due course.

Many thanks and I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,
Janet

Hi Janet,

Thanks for the email. I didn't catch Paula yesterday afternoon and she is in an all day board meeting today. Could you please hold the slot on 17th November at 4:30pm, until tomorrow when I can confirm? The date looks like it could work with some shuffling, but I need to check with Paula before I can be sure.

Hope this is ok and I'll be in touch tomorrow.

Best wishes,

Avene

Hi Avene

James has asked whether Paula could attend a meeting here at Westminster starting at 4.30pm on Monday 17 November 2014. She mentioned she would have to consult her diary. Might you let me know as soon as possible please as we have other MPs holding that time and date.

If this does not work, might you offer some alternatives? Monday evenings work very well here.

Many thanks,
Kind regards,
Janet

Hi Avene

Thank you for this. James is content to have a word but he would prefer to meet Paula face to face and wants other MPs to join him, namely Oliver Letwin, Andrew Bridgen, and Mike Wood. So, a preliminary and brief word tomorrow would work well but he does want a meeting subsequently.

Shall we say 3.30pm, Tuesday 28 November for a phone conversation for half an hour? And what number is best to reach Paula on at that time, please?

Kind regards,

Janet

Hi Janet,

Hope you are well. I've just left a vm. Paula was wondering if James might be free for a call tomorrow afternoon? We could be flexible if he has any time, but good times for us include 1-2pm and 3-4pm, or 4:45pm.

Many thanks and I look forward to hearing from you.

James is being contacted by the media and will need to speak to them soon. He wants to speak to Paula before he talks to them. Can you please let Paula know this as a matter of urgency? In addition, we know that Ron from Second Sight is trying to reach her. He would like to tell her how things are going from his perspective and James is very keen for her to hear what he has to say.

Kind regards

Dear Janet,

Thanks for your email and vm yesterday. Paula is actually on leave this week so has not seen the letter yet. I will ensure she sees it on her return on Monday. November is looking very congested at present, so I will need to speak to Paula to see what we can shift in the diary to accommodate a meeting, so can you please leave it with me and I'll give you a call once I have spoken to Paula on Monday.

Many thanks and we'll speak next week.

Best wishes,

Dear Avene

Last Friday James sent a letter to Paula requesting a meeting. Could you please give me a call at the earliest possible opportunity to arrange. I must let you know that we are now receiving calls from numerous journalists about the mediation scheme and so this meeting is a matter of considerable urgency.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Paula,

James has asked me to thank you for your letter of 12 June. He wonders whether you might send him something to consider by way of a circulation to MPs by the end of next week. He would like to be able to tell the MPs why no meeting is going to take place, and what progress is being made.

Might your office let him have something to consider, please?

Many thanks.
