Subject: Re: FJ Remote Access conversation with James Davidson...

Thanks Mark - I think JD just needs to get things off his chest and am quite relaxed.

Subject: FJ Remote Access conversation with James Davidson...

Hi all,

For the moment, the below is just for info, but certainly something to be mindful of.

I had a call from James Davidson (FJ) this morning with regards to the proposed Remote access papers we sent across for them to:

- 1) Provide answers to the questions posed, and then;
- 2) Sign off.

Broadly speaking he seemed happy and said he would provide answers within the next couple of days or so. Hopefully, that will allow us to put the issue to bed.

However, at the end of the call he made a point of saying (in a completely pleasant and professional manner) that FJ had previously asked POL to respond to the less than accurate statements made about Horizon by SS.

He stated that should such 'repeated inaccuracies' continue to be made by SS, then FJ would, at some point in the future (though he said this was not imminent) have to consider legal action against SS with regards to the potential for reputational damage.

After discussing this with Andy P, it is felt this is most likely just an attempt by FJ to make us take a firmer line with SS.

Rod - I CC'd you in case this does ever escalate as it is likely it will fall on your desk I am afraid.

Mark
