Dear Kevan,

Please see the email below. Your views?

As for the possibility of an Adjournment Debate, I have been to see the Speaker and I believe he will grant it for the 90 minute 2:30 session on Wednesday 17th December. He asked if the application would be in my name or yours. I said either, not yet sure, which didn't bother him. Do you have a view? It is possible that since my flight from the USA gets in at 10:05 that morning, the risk that it might be delayed by snow or something would suggest it should be you; on the other hand, my name has been more associated with the issue than yours, and maybe that would bring in more MPs to take an interest. I shall inquire as to whether it could be in the name of both of us jointly.

Janet is GRO but I understand will struggle in this afternoon to get the letters and press release out. I attach hereto my current draft of the letter and of the press release, which will need some words from you.

Yours ever,

James
