Amy, yes, that is correct. It was uploaded as a single zip file, and I would recommend downloading it and unzipping to a folder in order to read them; because they are html files, they reference some of the other files contained in the zip, e.g. the image files, so it all needs to be kept together in order to display correctly. I first tried to allow your system to upload and unzip it into directories, but noticed that the relationships didn't work that way. Once unzipped it becomes quite large, around 40MB.

Below is some information from John Simpkins our expert on KELs.

It includes 8,388 KELs.

The old Horizon KELs can be identified by the heading text 'HORIZON KEL'

e.g.

HORIZON KEL acha10L

KEL type: Unresolved
Title: Problems with Vale of Glamorgan rent and council tax cards 1st April 2009

TfS: T1031777

The newer HNG-X KELs can be identified by the heading text 'HNG-X KEL'

e.g.

HNG-X KEL aallen3125P

KEL type: Unresolved
Title: SHOUA Failure on EPM server - CRITICAL SYSMGT 505 (or 531)
This has occurred due to failure to generate csv file using Summary: /opt/sysmgt/tools/XXX_arguments.properties :
FATAL ERROR  CRITICAL SYSMGT 505 occurs in the StartOfDay job
FATAL ERROR  CRITICAL SYSMGT 531 occurs in the EndOfDay job

Last updated: by Wayne Bragg on 21/03/2011
Release: HNGX
System product: EstateManagementDatabaseServer(EST)
Server name: EPM001
Keywords: SHOUA, TPM, SYSMGT 505, /opt/sysmgt/tools/XXX_argu
Status: Authorised
Visibility: Medium
Peak: PC0195901
TfS: T2208524
Version: 13

All HORIZON KELs are now obsolete, otherwise they would have been migrated to HNG-X kels.

HORIZON KELs will not be as easy to read as we switched mark-up formatting between the releases.

The KEL status will be either Authorised or Deactivated.

Matthew

Thank you, we have safely received the documents.

There is also a file named "KELComplete" uploaded to the data room. Please could you confirm if this contains all historic and current KEL entries?

Many thanks

Amy,

I have now uploaded to the repository the documents as listed on the attachment.

Those listed on sheet DES APP HLD have been uploaded to the HNG-X folder, noting that those with WD in column are no longer current for the current HNG-X solution and have been withdrawn.

Those listed on sheet TD ARC are in the Horizon folder.

Please let me know if you find any issues with any of the files, although I believe that they are all straightforward Word documents and should present no problems.

POL's expert has requested some further documents on the HNG-X and HNG-A high level design architecture and the earlier Horizon system. Please could you upload the following documents to the HighQ data room?

All documents in the series TD/ARC/###

All documents in the series DES/APP/HLD/###

Thank you for your assistance.

Kind regards

Amy
