

Whistleblowing: Your views count

At Post Office we take your views and concerns seriously. A culture of openness and accountability is essential to ensure Post Office matters even more tomorrow than it does today.

That's why we want you to complete our whistleblowing survey. We want you to tell us what you understand about whistleblowing at Post Office. The survey results will help us identify where improvements can be made to our whistleblowing awareness across the business.

The survey won't take any longer than 5-10 minutes.
