I am the person named above and have been employed by Post Office Ltd for 33 years and my current role is as a Network Field Support Advisor which I have held since July 2008 and part of my duty is to visit and audit Post Office Branches. The purpose of this role is to verify the assets held at a Post Office branch are correct and the transactions are performed to the required specification to ensure the security of the Post Officer, its customers and its clients by reconciling the figures in the Post Office accounts with the physical cash, stock and paid vouchers actually on hand in order to establish that there is no loss of Post Office funds and report the result of the audit.

At 08.00 hrs on 2 February 2012 I attended Winsford Post Office 19a Dingle Walk Winsford CW7 1BA with my colleagues Ms Jane TIMMS, Mr Rob LYON, Mr Paul HAYHURST and Mr Tim GORDON-POUNDER and introduced ourselves to the postmaster Mr Grant Allen and explained the reason for our attendance at the branch.

Prior to the commencement of the audit Mr ALLEN asked me to accompany him to the Office. He then said to me that the stock unit he used would be approximately £10,000 short. He stated that he had financial difficulties running the branch and was unable to make good shortages in the accounts. Mr ALLEN further stated that he had inflated the cash on hand figures. A record of this conversation (RC/1) was made. I now produce exhibit RC/1.

A series of series of reports from the Horizon system were printed to ascertain the cash and stock holdings that should be on hand at Winsford Post Office branch in order to complete the audit.

I completed the audit and the result of the audit was a shortage of £13,166.25 on the day.

A debt of £4,645.24 had previously been centrally settled, making a total of £17,811.49 owed to Post Office Ltd.

A breakdown of the audit result and details of the audit findings are as follows:

Identified as a shortage in cash figures	-£12,967.80
Identified as a shortage in stock figures	-£ 55.26
Identified as a surplus in postage figures	+£ 1.65
Outstanding transaction corrections not processed	-£ 90.00
Discrepancy shortage as per office snapshot	-£ 54.84
Outstanding debt previously settled centrally	-£ 4,645.24
Total Shortage	-£ 17,811.49

All figures are recorded onto an electronic document known as a P32.

At the end of the audit I also prepared a report and I now produce this as RC/2. I

At the end of the audit Mr ALLEN declined to perform his own independent check of the cash and stock and the reason he gave was that the discrepancy was what he expected it to be.

I relayed my findings to Ms Denise REID, Contracts Advisor who precautionary suspended Mr ALLEN.

The reports printed off the Horizon system together with Branch Trading Statements have been passed to the Post Office Ltd Security Team.

I have been employed by, Post Office Ltd (formally known as the Post Office, Consignia and Royal Mail Group) since 1991. Post Office Ltd employs me as a Security Manager and my duties include the investigation of crimes committed against Post Office Ltd by its staff and its agent's employees. I have held this position for 12 months.

I was present with Stephen BRADSHAW on Thursday 19th April 2012 when Grant Jan ALLEN the sub postmaster of Winsford Post Office branch was interviewed at Royal Mail House Clippers Quay Salford M50 3NW.

Mr ALLEN declined Legal Representation and he signed form POL 001 (Identifying Mark SB/1). Mr ALLEN also declined to have a Post Office friend present during the interview. Form POL 003 (Royal Mail Employees Rights to a Friend at an Interview or Search).

The interview was tape-recorded and commenced at 11:10 hours and concluded at 13.05 hours. The interview, which covered two tapes were given the unique reference numbers

073554 and 073555, the master tape seals were signed by Mr ALLEN and the tapes sealed in the presence of Mr ALLEN.

The tapes were switched off at 12:07 whilst my colleague Stephen BRADSHAW made a phone call to continue the interview without a solicitor being present as Mr ALLEN had indicated he was not sure if he wanted a solicitor or not.

The interview recommenced at 12:31 hours and form POL 002 (SB/17) was completed and signed by Mr ALLEN.

During this break neither I nor Mr ALLEN left the room and this matter was not discussed.
