REGINA v SEEMA MISRA
GUILDFORD CROWN COURT
CONFISCATION HEARING
CASE NO: POLTD/0708/0249

The above named Defendant appeared at Guildford Crown Court on the 8th July 2011. The case was presided by His Honour Judge Stewart. The prosecution was conducted by Counsel Mr Warwick Tatford and the Defendant was represented by Mr Haddrill.

Prior to the hearing a Confiscation figure was agreed in the sum of £40,000 although the agreed figure for benefit was £83,469.59. It was considered that the available amount agreed was a lesser figure of £40,000 because of the Defendant's substantial debt. She also informed, through her Counsel, that on the internet the value of the property in question number  GRO  GRO was valued at £170,000.

In the circumstances when the case was heard before His Honour Judge Stewart he made the following order:-

Confiscation Order of £40,000 to be paid by the 7th January 2012 but in default the Defendant would be sent to prison for 15 months.

The Court also made a Compensation Order under Section 13(5) and Section 13(6) where the Court ordered a Compensation Order in favour of Post Office Limited in the sum of £40,000 directed to be net or recovered from the Confiscation Order to be made payable to Post Office Limited.

The agreed document re confiscation proceedings signed by both Counsel dated 8th July 2011 is enclosed for your information.
