TRIAL - 15TH MARCH 2010

Dear Jarnail,

It appears that the two experts did achieve something after all, contrary to the impression I was given by Mr Hadrill.

I wonder if Mr Jenkins can consider what logs need to be looked at and how long this exercise might take might take. I hope he agrees that only a relatively short period needs to be looked at, in the light of the defendant's regular inflations, but we should of course defer to his expertise as to what is required. If he could then liaise with the defence expert they can hopefully do the exercise together and see if there is any pattern of errors which might have been counterbalanced by the defendant's false accounting.

I am anxious that we are proactive about this to avoid the defence being able to say that they don't have time to be ready.

I am happy to speak to Mr Jenkins direct and he is very welcome to ring me on my mobile - [REDACTED] GRO

Kind regards,
Warwick
