For the attention of Mr Jarnail Singh

Dear Sir,

Re: Restraint Order No. U20080476
Mr Julian Wilson

We write to confirm that we are instructed to act on behalf of Mr Julian Wilson of GRO GRO who is subject to a Restraint Order dated 17th December 2008.

The Restraint Order refers to specific assets held by Mr Wilson identified in paragraphs 4 and assets held by Mrs Karen Lynette Wilson at paragraph 5.

We now write to request a variation of the Order by consent to overcome the immediate difficulties experienced by Mr Wilson in relation to the continued running of the business at GRO. At the time of the making of the Restraint Order the balance of the Lloyds TSB account, sort code GRO GRO account number GRO was GRO. As a result of the Order it was necessary for Mr Wilson to obtain a loan from his father-in-law. Such loan created cash flow but now needs to be repaid. The balance of the business account now stands at approximately GRO as payments have been made into the account but monies cannot be withdrawn.

Having regard to the amount in business account Astwood Bank PO Current A/C GRO we seek a variation to the order lifting the restraint in relation to paragraph 4 (e) and paragraph 5 (2).

The Restraint Order dated 17th December 2008 also referred to Lloyds TSB account GRO. The payment of the mortgage from the account is required in the sum of GRO per month. There is no provision in the Order for the payment of living expenses. IRRELEVANT month and such monies are paid into Lloyds TSB account number GRO sort code GRO

To enable the payment of the mortgage and essential household bills and, having regard to there being no provision in the Order for living expenses, we seek a variation to the Restraint Order lifting the restraint in relation to paragraph 4 (d) and paragraph 5 (b) respectively.

If there are any queries regarding the contents of this letter then we shall be pleased if you will contact the writer, Sarah Hunt.

Yours faithfully,

GRO
