We write further to your second letter of 22 October 2018.

As per your requests, Mr Draper and Mr Cohen (junior trial Counsel) have reviewed the redacted documents and confirmed that the redactions have been correctly applied on the basis of legal advice and litigation privilege. The redactions have also been reviewed by the partner in charge of this litigation, Mr Parsons.

As you will appreciate it is difficult for us to provide further information on the redacted data without a waiver of privilege, but we trust that the assurances of Counsel and the partner in charge of this litigation address your concerns.

Yours faithfully
