Simon's advice now ammended to deal with the waiver issue. I had putMy draft letter to Hugh Flemington is on the protected file. At this stage I see little point in adding to the advice in the letter. I assume that Hugh or Sue will ask questions about sources etc which I will deal with.

Subject: This morning's meeting

Dear All

I attach a note which I believe captures all we talked about this morning. Please check. You chaps are closer to this than RH and I and if there is anything I have not grasped or covered you must let me know. Equally if here is anything that is plain wrong you must let me know.

I have seen SC's note. The comment I have is how are we going to impart the advice to the PO that if there are factions within it who are running around trying to lay off blame for their own shortcomings by lying about the advice they have received then they lose privilege. I thought SC's advice would cover this. On reflection it may be something for Andy to raise with Hugh and to note or to confirm in a letter to him.

Andy - what is Hugh's surname?

Subject: ADVICE - First Draft.

Chaps,

Please consider first draft.

I would not object to any suggested alteration, including typo's.
