Jarnail,

Sorry for the delay in replying. Things were rather hectic on Tuesday and I had a day of leave yesterday, but I note that you are chasing me as this is urgent.

I don't have any detailed notes of my discussions with Charles.

Basically what we did was to go through his two reports (actually 2nd and 3rd report - I've not seen the first report!) and my comments on them.

I also explained to him some of how Horizon works and why this means that some of his hypotheses were invalid. I also pointed out that in order to identify exactly what was happening, then it would be necessary to go through the detailed logs of the relevant times and that as far as I was aware, no request had been made for any such logs (though I think they may now have been requested).

I told him that if we looked at the logs that we would be able to confirm whether or not the scenario in Falkirk applied, but I thought it was unlikely. I also described my understanding of the scenario in Mrs Norris's witness statement as being irrelevant, though also said that I had not been given any written description of exactly what her problem was.

I hope that covers what you need.

Regards

Gareth

Jarnail,

I had a lengthy phone discussion with Charles McLachlan (not Alistair) on Friday 12th Feb (about 90 mins in total).

I've not heard anything from him since, but said that I was available if required.

Are you saying he might want a further meeting?

Regards

Gareth

Dear Mr Jenkins,

Thank you for providing two witness statements in this case. I have given your details to the Defence Expert Alistair McLachlan to contact you with a view to discussing the issues in the case further and analysing the data as discussed. I should be grateful if you would please confirm whether he has been in touch with you and that you have arranged a mutually convenient time for the meeting. It is important that this is done as soon as possible in view of the trial date of 15th March 2010 at Guildford Crown Court.

If I can assist in any way please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards.
