Hi Diane

Hope all is well with you.

Thanks for your note on Gaerwen - quite a relief not to have to travel to the back of beyond!

Just wondering whether the defendant had been sentenced yet - if so could you tell me his award?

Kind regards
Penny

Dear Ms Thomas,

I am writing to update you in the case against Mr Thomas, ex Subpostmaster of Gaerwen Post Office, for which you provided a witness statement.

Mr Thomas has now pleaded guilty to charges and is due to be sentenced later this week. Therefore there a trial will not be necessary and you will not be required to give evidence.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your involvement. I understand the timing of these matters with changes occurring at very short notice is not ideal and appreciate your patience and flexibility.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Dianne Matthews has just informed me that you are all no longer required to attend court as the suspect has pleaded guilty to a lesser charge.
She has sent individual letters of conformation to you, but would particularly like to thank you for the work you have undertaken with regard to your statements, your personal flexibility and your patience, in this difficult case.

I would also like to thank you all for this effort which hopefully will reflect into any future/pending cases which may come to light.

Kind Regards

All

(Not to be passed on)

Spoke to Dianne and the latest (last Friday) is that Mr Thomas has now asked for a lesser charge to be considered which he 'might' plead guilty to???

This has come about since his own IT Expert has had a look at the evidence !!

Dianne states that it will be conditional upon his confirmation that Horizon 'in no way' played a part in this loss, so we wait and see, meanwhile Dianne is hoping to come back to us by end of week on who is required and the details.

She has my number and has stated she will call me as soon as she knows something.

Diane,

Sorry to keep pestering you, but I'd appreciate an update on where we are with this (at least by Friday 15th when I go on leave)

Specifically,

- Should I be planning to travel to Caernarfon on Sunday 24th?
- Do I need to make Hotel Bookings (if so where / how long)
- What exactly are the arrangements? (Address with Postcode, time etc.)

As I said before, I'm happy to pick up details of late changes (or a cancellation) on the morning of Sunday 24th and adjust any arrangements as necessary. I'd prefer to have a definite positive / negative confirmation at that time either by email or phone. Who should I contact? Is it you?

Regards

Gareth

Diane,

I thought I'd keep you updated:

GRO

I'm prepared to travel up to Caernarfon on Sunday 24th, but will clearly need final confirmation as to whether it is still "on" that Sunday. I can check emails on the Sunday, or will pick up voicemails on my mobile. I'll also need guidance as to whether or not to make hotel bookings in Caernarfon before I go on my holiday.

Hi Gareth,

GRO

Anyway, we are still hopeful that it will be resolved prior to the trial but we have to plan it as if it will go ahead.

All witness's will have to be present on the 1st day unless the defence has agreed there statement and dont wish to ask any questions about that evidence. It is pretty much as you see on the TV really but remember that you will have sight of your statement prior to taking the stand and can only be asked questions specifically about your statement.

A lot can happen between now and Sept 25th as Mr Thomas defence are still asking a lot of questions so we will wait with anticipation.

I will keep you informed and many thanks for your flexibility, it is very much appreciated

Diane,

GRO

I understand also that the trial is in Caernarfon. Do you have any idea as to how much time will be involved and what exactly is required? I've never been to court in any capacity and my knowledge of such things is based on films and TV (which I'm sure are inaccurate!)
