Penny,

Attached is my initial thoughts on this.

Do you want to pass to POL or wait until I get a chance to reproduce the issues re TCs?

Regards

Gareth

Gareth

Steve rang me and apologised – apparently POL legal gave him urgent instructions to contact you. He will make all further requests via Salford.

While talking I did find out that this request refers to the Rinkfield outlet – we provided approx 12 months worth of data back in February this year covering July 08 thru June 09, and Andy has provided analysis of helpdesk calls.

Apparently this report is some 60 pages long and needs to be scanned! Steve said this was the same expert covering Jon Longman's West Byfleet, although he didn't name him.

Penny,

I wasn't aware of that, but it does make sense! Just as well I forwarded it on to you!

Steve rang me back to say he'd try and get the report.

Your request to Gareth Jenkins and his response to you have been copied to me.

Please be aware that it is against process for investigators to approach Fujitsu employees direct for assistance with litigation issues. Please direct all you requests via Jane Owen or her team at Salford.

Kind regards
Penny

Steve,

All you've sent was a covering letter from Juliet McFarlane. I assume that there is supposed to be a report for me to comment on as well?

I'm not aware of this case, but when I spoke to Charles McLachlan (who is the "Defence expert" for a number of cases) last week he did mention that he was now involved in a case in Cumbria, so perhaps this is it.

Gareth
