	At Fazakerley Post Office branch 404 Longmoor Lane Liverpool L9 9DB accompanied by Kevin Ryan Security Manager we spoke to Anne Nield and Angela Sefton Clerks at the branch. An audit was taking place in response to a telephone call received from Anne Nield on 5 January 2012. At 09.12 Anne Nield handed me a letter that had been prepared jointly by both Anne and Angela. In the letter they state that they had been suppressing Giro deposits from a business customer. Anne Nield and Angela Sefton were invited to attend a voluntary interview under caution and asked to agree to a voluntary search of their home addresses. They both agreed to attend an interview and undergo a search of their home addresses and any vehicle they may own. Their legal rights were explained and they contacted their solicitor. They were asked where the missing Giro deposit slips were and stated they were in a cupboard in the counter area. A total of 40 deposit slips with a number of cheque envelopes were recovered. Nothing else was discussed.
