Paul,

Thanks for the update. I will hold the matter in abeyance for the time being.

Kind Regards
Clive

Clive,

I interviewed both Mrs McQuilliam and Mrs McQuilliam- Jenkins and both answered "No Comment" to my questions.

This case is one of a few that we currently hold that really is dependent on the outcome of cases whereby the integrity of the Horizon system has been called into question. In effect a "test" case is being put through the course relating to this and as such other cases are being put on hold until its outcome. This is one of the cases.

Basically we are waiting to see if the test case goes through with a Horizon challenge before deciding what to do with some of the others.

Not ideal but hopefully this keeps you up to speed.

Regards,

Paul Whitaker
