Martyn, that's fine. Thank you. I am copying in Chris Darvill of Bond Pearce, as the case is with him now, although currently on hold pending confirmation from Susan Crichton as to strategy on these Horizon cases generally.

With kind regards
Helen

In light of Gary's comments are you happy to issue the Letter Before Claim or do you still want a full asset check on Mrs Fatania?

Yes as far as I know she still runs the shop and she also owns the attached living premises above where I interviewed her and this is of a good standard and quality of decoration so I am sure there are actual assets to be realised in this case still.
