I have been employed by, Royal Mail Group (formally known as the Post Office and Consignia) since 1978. Post Office Ltd employs me as a Security Manager and my duties include the investigation of crimes committed against Post Office Ltd by its staff and its agent's employees. I have held this position for 12 years.

On 5th January I received a phone call from Anne NIELD a sub office assistant at Fazakerley Post Office branch 404 Longmoor Road Liverpool L9 9DB. As a result of this phone and the previous concerns an audit was arranged for Fazakerley Post Office branch for the following day 6th January 2012.

I attended at the branch with my colleague Kevin RYAN on Friday 6th January 2012 whilst the audit was taking place.

Anne NIELD hand me a letter (SB/45) that she said had been prepared by both her and Mrs

Angela SEFTON. In the letter they stated they had suppressed Giro deposits from customers and the amount outstanding was approximately £34,250.

Ms NIELD said the outstanding giro deposit slips were in the counter secure area and 40 giro deposit slips and a number of cheque envelopes were recovered from a cupboard in this area.

Both Ms Anne NIELD and Mrs Angela SEFTON agreed to attend a voluntary interview at a later date as they wished to contact their solicitor for advice. They both also agreed to a voluntary search of their home address.

I was present with Kevin RYAN at [REDACTED] GRO [REDACTED] when the premises of Angela SEFTON were searched. The search commenced at 11:55 and concluded at 12:30. Nothing was seized.

I was again present with Kevin RYAN at [REDACTED] GRO [REDACTED] when the premises of Anne NIELD were searched. The search commenced at 12:42 and concluded at 13:15. Nothing was seized.

On Friday 20th January 2012 Mrs Angela Mary SEFTON a sub office assistant at Fazakerley Post Office branch was interviewed at Bootle Crown Office The New Strand Washington Parade Bootle L20 4ED.

Mrs SEFTON requested Legal Representation and Sarah GIBSON (Solicitor) attended on her
