Hi Martin

Please could you just look at the attached before I send it. I imagine the defence will not be too pleased but that is our position, I had to concede that the discs were served late. They may respond to say that they are unable to particularise any issues with the system until they receive the report. They shouldn't as that was the wish of the judge at the last hearing, but without having the expert report yet to send to them, that is the best I can do for now. Steve B will be obtaining the other bits and bobs next week I imagine after he has finished with the Dixon con

Thanks

Rachael
