Subject: RE: MP meeting

Dear Alwen and Susan,

Thank you for your patience in this matter. Please find attached the notes from the meeting held at Westminster on 25 March. This has now been sent to the MPs, along with the Chairman's letter and the briefing note from Second Sight.

Neither James nor I were privy to any conversation that was held following the close of the meeting, so cannot comment on those. James has, however, received a letter from Alan Bates at the JFSA which would indicate that there may be some disagreement ahead. He is considering how to respond. Alan knows it's Parliamentary Recess and so is not expecting an answer this week.

Perhaps you might digest what is in the document attached, and let me know your thoughts. I will get in touch again once I have spoken to James to his return next week, and ask him for his thoughts on the ones you express below.

Many thanks for your patience.

Janet

Hi Janet I am not chasing you, honestly as I know you would have sent the meeting note if it was available.

But I am on holiday next week and just wanted to let you know, Susan will be available in my absence .

We have been discussing how we take this forward and how second sight should focus their work.

We really need to agree a way forward that James is comfortable with, as I fear JFSA and the MPs are in very different places. investigating each MP case would be very expensive, hence second sight's suggestion of investigating themes with their spot reviews, but it sounds as if, after the meeting we are a long way away from getting agreement to this. Especially with the conversations after the meeting closed.

Once we have your note things might be clearer, but perhaps we should consider a call between James and Paula to agree what is going to be done and how we keep everybody on Board without it costing a fortune.

Thanks
Alwen
