Hi all,

Following on from the notes below.

Attached is the latest version. If you want to feed in comments (track changes please), if you could do so before Monday (apologies) I will then include these in time for Paul to read through with Andy's new lines on Monday morning.

My major question that I would appreciate views on is in relation to Section 26 and PO Prosecutions policy. In our previous Reply, we pretty much said SS are not qualified to comment on such matters and as such do not feel it necessary to comment on this section other than to say we reject all of their findings.

Given the CCRC development, does this stance remain or should we use this Reply an opportunity to detail our prosecution policy and rebut paragraphs such as 26.21. If, I assume this would need to be done by CK?

Attached is also the comparison document between their first report and this latest edition.

Hi,

Hi - just to manage expectations having just caught up with Andy, the report won't be ready to go to Rod and Angela until COB Monday as opposed to Monday am.

I have just checked the letter where we committed to sharing "... more detailed response will be provided to you in the early part of next week" so this should still work - but do shout if a problem

Apologies

Mark

Hi,

I thought it may be useful to share where we are up to in respect of our response to Part Two.

· I have been through our original reply to their original report and tweaked & added words to cover, where warranted, any new assertions / points made over and above those included in their original report

· where I did not know the process / technical process aspects, Angela has fed in and Andy P is drafting some additional lines.

· Once this is complete, the report is (today) being shared with Paul Lorraine who will sense check and double check we have not missed anything important that we need to rebut / comment on.

· I will then tidy up and share with Angela and Rod on Monday morning for proofing and legal sign off. Though of course everyone is welcome to read and comment.

· We should then be able to share a draft of our Reply with SS (if we decide to - I am not sure we should but we can discuss). Note: the section of Foreign Currency Transactions may not be included by Monday as it needs to be drafted by Angela and Kath as it relates to M118
