Just for clarity: We have not put the statement on the website and I assume you did not want us to do this today, but please let me know if this is not the case.

Further to this, do you have an update? I am just keen to make sure we get our message/statement out before the JFSA meeting on Sunday.
Best wishes

Thanks.

I have become desperately confused as you can tell! It is entirely my fault.

I think what we should do tomorrow is:

- write a letter from PV to the minister attaching the dossier. If she then wants to table it in parliament that is fine (we could suggest it) (I don't think we should put the dossier on the website - not sure that was ever intention?)
- put the media friendly statement on the website. I have re-engaged Gill Plimmer with the issue
- write to Oliver L offering a meeting on same basis as the other MPs (I will send this tonight in fact)
- send the separate statement and answers to Inside Out. I don't think we should do an interview. I don't see the benefits. And if JFSA walk away on Sunday we will look v silly.
- review the internal materials with a view to putting them out next week (if Nick Wallis gets any traction from other BBC outlets)
- engage BBC editors at the serious news programmes (Today, Wato and PM) with the media statement

Anything else?

I can try to clear my diary tomorrow if need be.
