Colleagues

Please find attached a background note on the CCRC and a series of grids that seek to draw out and summarise some of the pros and cons of each option in the Committee paper.

I hope that this is helpful.

Thank you for the helpful feedback. We are working on further advice now.

In the meantime, please find Tony Hooper's original letter to Jo Swinson attached. Please also find below the link to the Select Ctte transcript for ease of reference.

Thanks Alice and will take a look.

On the paper I agree it would be helpful to layout the options. Also as we discussed at our last meeting I would be keen to see how we measure 'success' in terms of time, cost and impact and the relationship between the three. For example, as you suggest, can we speed progress even if it costs more and is that desirable? This should help reinforce our thinking on the preferred approach.

Look forward to the discussion

Laying out the options in a grid which allows us to compare the pros and cons of each from eg, a cost, legal, media, and Ministerial perspective would be helpful.
> Finally, we will need of course, to involve the full Board following tomorrow's meeting. I think everyone knows that but as the paper is silent on that point, I thought it worth making.
