Dear All

Complaint Review and Mediation Scheme

Second Sight's final version of their Part Two report will shortly be provided to applicants and their advisors in the Complaint Review and Mediation Scheme. Regrettably, but unsurprisingly, the report remains inaccurate and contains a number of unsubstantiated assertions. We will therefore be issuing a full response alongside it.

In order to be transparent and to reduce external speculation as much as possible, we will be making both documents available on request to other interested parties including some media. We expect some media coverage but we will, as previously, be working to keep this contained and short-lived.

Communications and Corporate Affairs Director
