Jarnail

Thanks for your email.

I have inserted the figures from the CK document into paragraph 5 of the draft letter (attached) which, as far as I am concerned, is now ready to go.

I would counsel against sending the CK document to the CCRC – as I said to you on the phone, it feels a bit like inviting the police into your living room!

Can you let me have a copy of the final letter once it gets sent.

Kind regards

Gavin

Thanks for the draft reply to CCRC. Please find attached a copy of the Observations and Analysis of the Cartwright King Review. This advice from CK can be attached or quoted from to deal with the information required in Paragraph 5 or attached to the draft letter and to show POL are taking the review seriously.

Jarnail

Hi Jarnail

As requested please find attached draft letter to be sent by Chris to the CCRC.

I noticed from the email trail below that Mrs Berlin wrote to Amanda on 16 May 2014 so that explains why this letter is necessary. It also shows that the initial letter I drafted was not sent by POL last October.

Please note that the letter needs some figures from you/CK. I hope they will be easy to get and insert.

I think it is likely that the CCRC will want to see a copy of Brian Altman's report. I don't think there is anything in it which is damaging to POL but obviously if POL decides to disclose it to the CCRC it needs to maintain privilege. Can I suggest that if a request is made to see the report you have another word with me at that time.

Kind regards

Gavin

Dear Amanda

I wrote to Susan Crichton at the beginning of this month to enquire how the review is progressing and whether any potentially unsafe convictions are likely to be brought to or attention, however, the letter was returned marked 'addressee has gone away'. Has Susan moved on from her role at the Post Office? If so, who is leading on the review now (or if it is complete who is in a position to update me)?

Many thanks in anticipation of your assistance.
