Subject: RE: URGENT - Omnibus Trial [BD-4A.FID26896945]

I will read these now.

Jane has literally just gone out the building (on her way to dinner with GE). I gave her the heads up that this was coming but did not know about the point re Paula before she had left. Give her a call.

My view is that this does not go to PV. We are simply giving a proposal that goes beyond what the court has requested, in order to be helpful.

Mark

Rodric, Mark

Please find attached:

1. A draft PLSG paper on the long term strategy.
2. A draft letter to Freeths.

We have a meeting with Freeths next Friday. They have said that they will be sending us a letter with their proposals before the meeting. It is really important that we get our letter out first so we need to get this approved asap. If not, our letter will lose its effect because we will need to respond to Freeths' proposals as well as putting forward our own proposals. The clarity of our "Grand Plan" will be lost.

I'm sorry to ask this, but please can you review the attached asap tomorrow morning so that we can get this out to the PLSG tomorrow. I've spoken to Tom Moran and given him the 5 minute version of the Omnibus Trial plan. If you are happy with the attached papers, then he is content for them to go straight to the PLSG tomorrow morning (without him first seeing them) with a request for approval by 12noon Monday.

Tom would also like Jane's view on whether this needs running past Paula. I will try to call Jane but if you see her can you ask her about this?

Kind regards
Andy
