Hi all

I have made some changes to the two letters:

- On the JA letter this is still largely the same material but I have re-jigged the ordering and changed the tone in a few places to fit with the tone which I think Paula would want to adopt with James (I haven't put these through as tracked changes because it would have got too messy);
- The changes to the Jenny letter are more superficial so I have put these through as tracked changes.

If you're happy with these updates then I'll send them to Paula to review (she's travelling back from Harrogate so now would be a good time). If you could get back to me before 2.30 that would be very helpful as I'm then disappearing into a 2 hour meeting.

Many thanks,
Martin
