Paula

Many thanks.

For my part, I am happy to do a call this evening if you prefer to be shot of it. Part of the reason for the suggested timing was the unfortunate coincidence of Alice's mtg with JA.

Best wishes

Patrick

Hi this is a good letter now thank you for the thought and rework. I know Avene will have let you know that I have a couple of last small changes to talk through.

When do we want to send? I'm happy to take a call tonight if you need to get it off to land with Alice's timing in Turkey. Otherwise, I suggest I call Mark tomorrow?

Thanks, Paula

The attached reflects his suggestions in tracked changes, received in the last 10 mins. He said that none were crucial but were designed to create as much flexibility for us as poss [in the unlikely event of a future challenge].
