Hi Tom

Thanks for the reminder. We'll get the briefing set up shortly.

On the press reporting, we carefully monitor the various stages of the litigation which are likely to give rise to press interest and are usually able to flag potential coverage in advance to the Board. The article you refer to below was unexpected at the time, given that it was specialist press and came some time after the hearing referred to. It was also not completely accurate!

Fortunately, there has been little coverage of the case since.

We will be in touch soon regarding the briefing.

Kind regards,

Jane

Couple of follow-ups to our last meeting:

- We talked about the best way for me to get up to speed with the other members of the sub-committee. The suggestion was that I have a meeting with our lawyers. Assuming that's still the best way forward, could you help with putting me in touch with them?
- It would be helpful to be copied on any press or other reporting on the case (eg <https://www.lawgazette.co.uk/law/change-your-attitude-judge-threatens-litigators-with-draconian-costs-penalties/5063694.article>). Other members of the sub-committee would no doubt want to be copied as well.
