

Post Office: Horizon Trial Contingency Planning

17 October at 1600
House of Commons

External attendees:

Jane MacLeod, Group Director of Legal, Risk and Governance at Post Office Ltd (POL)

Paula Vennells, Group Chief Executive, POL

Alisdair Cameron, Group Chief Financial Officer, POL

Mark Davies, Group Communications, Brand and Corporate Affairs Director, POL

Internal attendees:

Alex Chisholm, BEIS Permanent Secretary

Gavin Lambert, Post Office Policy Champion, BEIS

Gareth Evans, Deputy Director, BEIS Legal Advisers

Tom Cooper, Director, UKGI

Richard Watson, General Counsel, UKGI

Purpose of meeting and handling:

For you and the Permanent Secretary to familiarise you with POL's preparations for the Horizon Trial, which commences on 5 November 2018 (with the "Common Issues Trial") and continues in March 2019 (with the "Horizon Issues Trial"), and their contingency planning to manage the potentially serious financial, reputational and operational implications of any adverse rulings and media coverage on the case.

POL have sent you a background "Briefing Paper" for today's meeting (attached), particularly in respect of the agenda items below. The note is a good summary of the current position but Section 5 (Contingency Planning) is quite light on risks and mitigating actions, as well as on indicating likelihood of outcomes. You may want to press POL for more detail on the implications for the business and the shareholder.

Agenda:

This agenda was agreed with POL who have submitted advance material covering this

No	Item	Time
1.	Background	5 mins
2.	Key issues at stake in November trial	10 mins
3.	Implications of losing: financial, operational, comms	20 mins
4.	Pros and cons of settlement and report on views of board and management	10 mins

Points to make:

Implications for business and shareholder

- Can POL confirm that there are no circumstances where additional funding will be required? This is not mentioned in the paper but officials have discussed with the company.
- The briefing paper lists mitigation actions but not how much they will cost. Can POL provide more detail to officials as a follow up to this meeting?

Settlement

- There is a consensus that it is not appropriate or feasible to settle in the short term but there will be a mediation window in March 2019. We will need to be in a position to take a collective decision on settlement so that POL can enter into any negotiations in good faith. POL will need to support BEIS and HMT in preparing for this.

Communications

- Communications will be crucial, particularly as POL is unlikely to win on all points (para 3.6). We welcome the Communications Strategy outlined in the briefing paper and the engagement scheduled for tomorrow.

Relevant context:

The background to this meeting is POL's "Briefing Paper" of 11 October (attached).

Media handling and social media:

On 18 October POL's Group Communications, Brand and Corporate Affairs Director, Mark Davies, will meet with UKGI and BEIS to discuss the communications and public relations challenges in more detail, including POL's communications plans and how HMG should handle any media enquiries around the trial. This will also provide the opportunity to follow up on any communications issues raised at today's meeting.

Our long-held position has been that this is an operational matter for POL and that HMG is unable to comment further as legal proceedings are underway. However, we need to consider whether this position will be sustainable in the face of greater media scrutiny expected once the actual trial starts.
