More information about Ferryhill which demonstrates an ongoing loss but in the second instances at least it points out a problem with staff training.

This is all Steve has picked up from visits and they don't relate to the discrepancy you mentioned Graham Have you been able to find out anything about this?

Regards

Lesley

Hi Lesley

The last one this week and then I am on leave for a week. These are the two visits that have direct reference to losses although some from earlier years allude to problems with balancing.

(See attached file: Ferryhill - 11.10.05.doc)(See attached file: Ferryhill, 174309.doc)

Steve

Could you have a look in the EFC for Ferryhill and see from the visit logs if this has ever been an issue Thanks

Brian/Lesley

Do you know of any complaints regarding the horizon system from the two branches mentioned in the e-mail below

the offices concerned are

Ferryhill - 174309
Grangemouth - 102868

The postmaster at these office are being called as defence witnesses for a trial that questions the integrity of the horizon system

As you can see this information is needed urgently so a quick response would be much appreciated

cheers
Paul

Can you please find out urgently what the postmasters at these offices are complaining about and get back to me and Stephen asap.

Rob

Are you or Deborah aware the cases other than Bajaj? Are these criminal cases by any chance? If so please can you send the details asap.

Dear Mandy,

Mr Castleton has witnessed summonsed:

1. Bajaj
2. The subpostmaster at Ferryhill sub post office, West End, Ferryhill, County Durham; and 3. Mr Alan Brown, Grangemouth sub post office, Falkirk, Scotland.

I'm up to speed on the Bajaj case but wonder if you could find out what the other 2 have complained about and whether there are any proceedings afoot.

Kind regards.
