Andy—sorry for delayed reply this was my laptop being updated. I have spoken with Andrew Bolc. in view of defendants admissions to offer and accept plea to false accounting I understand from Andrew this may at some stage be considered by the defence.

What are your lawyers views and thoughts?

Jarnail,

I have no doubt that this is but the first of many where questions may be raised. For what its worth I think we should be taking an early view. Please let me know what view is taken.

Best Wishes

Taunton Crown Court Date of Trial 13th August 2012

Dear Andy,

this case is heading towards trial on the above date. The POL investigator has queried and I am concerned as to whether the forthcoming review into Horizon by 2nd Sight will have any bearing on this case. I anticipate that our Prosecution Counsel will be raising the same query soon. In this case the defence report is critical of the audit trial produced by the Horizon system and I am conscious that this has been one of the issues levelled against the system in the past. The defence case statement directly puts POL to proof regarding the accuracy of the calculated losses and the accuracy of the Horizon system.

regards

Andrew Bolc
