Dear Andrew,

I'd be delighted if my fellow director Ian Henderson could join us. We have worked together on the Post Office/Horizon Investigation from the outset.

We'll be in Central Lobby before 2:25pm. Hopefully there won't be too many tourists there on Monday.

Many thanks, Ron.

Dear Mr Warmington,

I am just making final preparations for the meeting and I was wondering if anyone will be accompanying you? I suggest we meet in Central Lobby at 2.25pm.

Kind regards

Andrew:

As mentioned earlier today, the terms of my firm's contract with Post Office require me to seek Post Office's approval for any such meeting. May I take it that the Minister is comfortable with my doing that? In that the proposed meeting is only a few days away, I'll need to send my request tomorrow.

With thanks and regards,

Dear Mr Warmington,

Baroness Neville-Rolfe would like to invite you to a private meeting to discuss the Post Office system Horizon.

Would 2:30pm on Monday 19 October be convenient? The meeting would take place in the Ministers House of Lords Office.

Kind regards
