

MailOnline

Home News Royals | U.S. | Sport | TV | Showbiz | Femail | Health | Science | Money | Travel | Podcasts | Shopping |

Breaking News Australia Video University Guide China Debate Meghan Markle Prince Harry King Charles III Weather Most read Login

ADVERTISEMENT

Post Office dumps its replacement for scandal-hit Horizon IT system after setbacks caused costs to skyrocket to around £2b

Site  Web Enter your search

ADVERTISEMENT

By MARY O'CONNOR
PUBLISHED: 23:31, 4 December 2024 | UPDATED: 01:16, 5 December 2024

18
View comments

The Post Office is dumping its replacement for the scandal-hit Horizon IT system after setbacks caused costs to skyrocket to as much as £2billion, the Mail can reveal.

The in-house New Branch IT system (NBIT) was supposed to be finished by March 2024 at an initial cost of £200million over three years.

But difficulties in its development led to expensive delays.

Read More

TOP STORIES

Heartache for Beyonce as rape accusation against Jay-Z revives questions about their age gap relationship:

