

---

From: Anthony Grabiner[GRO]
Sent: Wed 20/03/2019 2:27:46 PM (UTC)
To: David Neuberger[GRO]
Subject: DEN 8 Re: Book

D

We've been instructed to proceed. I don't think the clients had any choice but they were reluctant to take such a serious step.

T

Lord Grabiner QC
One Essex Court
Temple
London, EC4Y 9AR

GRO

> On 20 Mar 2019, at 13:12, David Neuberger[GRO] wrote:

>

> Thanks for the information re the PO. I hope that they do not bottle it. Apart from the PR front (where the arguments cut both ways in my view and anyway it's all short term pizzazz) the argument for having a go at recusal is very strong.

> David

>

> Sent from my iPhone

>

>> On 20 Mar 2019, at 04:24, Anthony Grabiner[GRO] wrote:

>>

>> D

>>

>> Your recommendations so far have a 100% record with me - thanks and keep them coming. I hope you and Angela are enjoying yourselves.

>>

>> On the PO front I have a call with them today and they will decide what they will do. I've prepared a skeleton for use in front of the Judge and am working on the speaking note. The remarkable thing is that all the concerns expressed to the Judge by David C came home to roost but never registered with the Judge.

>>

>> Best,

>>

>> T

>>

>> Lord Grabiner QC

>> One Essex Court

>> Temple

>> London, EC4Y 9AR

>>

>> GRO

>>

>>> On 20 Mar 2019, at 01:54, David Neuberger[GRO] wrote:

>>>

>>> Tony,

>>>

>>> I have just finished reading A Long Night in Paris by Dov Alfon. I highly recommend it.

>>>

>>> David

>>>

>>> Sent from my iPhone