Attachments: Post Office Letter to NI PPS Oct 19.docx

Dear Simon,

Thank you very much for the obvious time and effort taken in order to provide me with this comprehensive response.

I have replied to the Defence in accordance with your responses to the questions they had posed.

I considered disclosing your letter to the Defence in its entirety but I am satisfied that the unreliability issues relate to the preceding IT system, that they are not relevant to this case and therefore neither undermine the prosecution case or assist the case for the defendant.

I expect that the Defence are aware of the issues with the preceding IT system in any event and that they may be asking these questions in order to provide a distraction from the evidence presented in this case against their client.

Many thanks again for your help.

Cathy

Hi Cathy

Yes, I hope so. I was in contact with the Post Office last week and sent them a request in writing.

Just waiting on their response.
