Dear Helen

I refer to our previous telephone conversation and attach a draft witness statement for you to review. I will send the exhibit to you separately. Please can you read the witness statement and let me have any comments you may have upon it. In particular, please can you look at the questions in bold italics. Once you have done that, please could you give me a call to discuss the answers and any changes you may have?

I look forward to hearing from you as soon as possible.

Kind regards.
