Rod

I spoke to Mark Westbrook about Gareth not attending. His view is that is ok but not the best option.

I think we should respond to FJ along the lines below:

=====

Pete

Thanks for letting me know about Gareth. This meeting is very important for us and our Counsel, so please can you be sure that Torstein will be able to address the questions. We're very tight on time before the Defence is due so we are unlikely to have another opportunity to meet with Counsel again. It would be very frustrating to hold the meeting and not be able to get clear answers on the day.

Regards
Rodric

Rodric

I have not asked Gareth to attend at this stage as I think Torstein and I can answer most questions on Horizon unless we get into the deep detail where we can call Gareth in if required.

Hope this is Ok.

Chris, Mike,

Thank you for agreeing to meet with our external legal team to help us prepare our defence to the allegations made in the Post Office Group Litigation.

I set out below the details for that meeting. Please note our legal team has also asked Mark Westbrook from Deloitte to attend to join up the work he has been doing for us over the past couple of years in response to the Claimants' allegations. I understand Mark is well known to Pete and Torstein through that work!

Date: Thursday 22 June @ 1pm

Venue: One Essex Court, London - <http://www.oeclaw.co.uk/contact> Please say you have a meeting with Tony Robinson at reception.

Attendees:

Tony Robinson – One Essex
Owain Draper – One Essex
Christopher Jay – Fujitsu
Mike Harvey - Fujitsu
Pete Newsome - Fujitsu
Torstein Godeseth – Fujitsu
Gareth Jenkins – (ex) Fujitsu
Mark Westbrook - Deloitte
Andy Parsons – Bond Dickinson
Elisa Lukas – Bond Dickinson
Rodric Williams – Post Office

Agenda:

This is principally an opportunity for Tony to ask a number of questions about the operation of Horizon that tie into points in the Generic Particulars of Claim.

- Overview of Horizon operation and structure
- Q&A on technical points about Horizon raised in the GPOC (the majority of the meeting).
- "Remote Access"
- AOB

Please let me know if you have any questions or comments.

With thanks again and kind regards,
Rodric
