Our current line if we are asked about remote access potentially being used to change branch data/ transactions is simply: "This is not and never has been possible."

This line holds but if we are pressed regarding SS's points about "admitting" there is remote access etc, we can say: "There is no remote access for individual branch transactions."

We might get pushed further on it and be asked by media to confirm whether or not there is any remote access. We will need to make the distinction re access as straightforward as we can so suggest: "There is no remote access for individual branch transactions. Fujitsu has support access to the 'back-end' of the system used for software updates and maintenance. This is of course strictly controlled with security processes in place, but could not, in any event, be used for individual branch transactions - there is no facility at all within the system for this."

I'll get a view from Fujitsu comms but let me have any comments.

Mel

Is this the first which references remote access?

I think we need to pick this up very robustly in our response as this could become public and Second Sight seem to be asking for proof that something didn't happen.

Mel, could we dust off our lines on this as this will be with the applicant and advisor tomorrow.

Best wishes

Dear all

Second Sight have released a revised version of their draft CRR for case M053.

Some background to this: you will remember that SS originally uploaded a draft CRR some weeks ago, but it transpired that there were some exhibits they had not shared with PO. With the new exhibits, PO reinvestigated and produced an updated Investigation Report and so SS have subsequently produced a new draft CRR.

Both the updated PO Investigation Report and Draft CRR are attached to this email.

Bond Dickinson will produce the draft response and settlement analysis by COP Thursday 16 October (Lex, please confirm) so please reply to all with your comments on the Draft CRR by COP tomorrow (Tuesday 14 October) so that they can be incorporated into the response.

Please note that the deadline for our response is Tuesday 21 October.

I will send a meeting request shortly to discuss the response. Given the heavy workload that many of us have this week, particularly preparing for the WG face-to-face on Friday, I am going to look at scheduling this meeting for Monday 20 October.

Many thanks

Jess
