I had a telephone conversation with Davlyn Cumberland. She was returning a call I had left on her telephone voicemail in relation to what was meant and it was said that they were unable to find anything that was "wrong". She meant the word unusual and I have already amended the witness statement to reflect that. Saying that I had emailed it to her and asking her to review it, if she is happy with to approve it by printing out two copies signing and dating it and giving her my address so that she could return one copy to me and retain the other for herself.
