Hi Mark,

I share your concerns and we've gone back to RM on them. I sent the comments we sent over to Susan so feel free to have a look.

The RM suggestion it's our document is nonsense - Slaughters are holding the pen and RM directors are responsible for it. That said, we can certainly influence its drafting as I'd be keen to ensure in this case.

Will.

Hi Will

Just wanted to touch base on prospectus which I know you have talked to Susan about. RM described it to me as a BIS doc but I think you don't share view? Anyway the unvarnished risk section is very problematic - it highlights all the risks which NFSP and others claim, and therefore supports the campaign. I don't suggest such risks should not be discussed but it does so baldly without mitigation and is poorly drafted in places - specifically on Horizon.

What is your view?

Mark
