Chris,

I can confirm that in the cases in which we have advised that disclosure of the Helen Rose Report and/or the Second Sight Interim Report should be made, the disclosure of the report(s) has in fact been made. Given our standing instructions, we have acted in accordance with our recommendations

Kind regards,

Martin.

Martin – I just wanted to follow up on the various case reports that you have sent through to me, principally so as to ensure that you are not waiting for any further input from this end. In that connection, I understand from Rod that your standing instructions are to act on the recommendations set in your reports unless you hear from POL to the contrary. If that is your understanding, I would be most grateful if you could confirm that back to me by email when you have a moment.

Kind regards

Chris
