It was on Radio 5 this morning but the coverage is much more balanced now. Ruth is doing a summary.

It was on the radio 4 news last night but I heard nothing this morning on radio 4. Has there been anything else?

Hello all

Dan Johnson, the journalist from Look North who filed for R4 is reviewing his piece "to ensure accuracy".

We have also spoken to the Editors of R5 and R4, plus the journalist who's filing the copy for BBC online. All are fully aware of our position and have agreed to ensure future reporting will be "a fair reflection" of the Report.

We're awaiting any further transcripts or coverage. We'll let you know if there are any further developments.

Best

Nina

Hi
please specifically challenge suggestion that we 'acknowledge' there were faults with Horizon - this is straightforwardly inaccurate as below:

"It wasn't dishonesty by people like Noel, so the Post Office, at least in this independent report that they commissioned, acknowledging here that these, around 100, 150 sub-postmasters who are now pursuing claims against the Post Office may not have been at fault. "

Hi Mark

The transcript reveals BBC are claiming:

1. "the thrust of this report is that it was faults in that computer system"
2. "It wasn't dishonesty by people (like Noel)". Which could suggest that the criminal convictions are unsafe.
3. "there were issues with the computer system (and the way it talked to over devices in the PO, the bank machine, the lottery machine, it was the interaction of those bits of technology".
